June 2016 Crimes Map

Analysis

There were half as many robberies reported when comparing June 2016 with June 2015. Aggravated assaults increased and was double the average. The biggest increase was with commercial burglaries, which coincides with increased reporting from neighboring counties. Residential burglaries were up slightly, but well within established norms. Larceny, theft and stolen vehicles decreased significantly. This unusual decrease may be short lived with July stats. Though the number of drugs and narcotics cases rose and DUIs went down, they were only 4 from the average. Productivity rates were down with the exception of citations, which were up 25% for the same time period last year. Accidents were down by 1, which now establishes the higher number of accidents as the new norm for June.
